

Farm-to-Table at our elementary schools!

Dr. Matthew Mingle welcomes staff on opening day, reiterating his continued commitment to educating the Whole Child.

Woodland 5th graders take a virtual field trip to the Virginia Historical Society to learn about the creation of the U.S. Constitution.

Welcome to our new staff for 2016-2017, who first met with their mentors at the kick-off of the district's New Teacher Induction Program (NTIP) which provides year-round support and mentoring.

Please like us on Facebook (Warren Township Board of Education) and follow us on Twitter

(@warrenschoolsnj).

Project Adventure... part of the 7th/8th grade physical education curriculum offering both high and low level options. "This requires kids to step outside of their comfort zone and learn to trust that they are in control," says PE teacher Sean Mealey.

Happy Halloween from our preschoolers!

Henry Hudson,
Ferdinand
Magellan,
Vasco da Gama
and other famous explorers visit
ALT.

7th graders in Amanda Rodriguez's Project Adventure class use "The Tank" and ingenuity to recreate their experience.

No, these Woodland 4th graders are not asleep. They are learning how to be fully aware of their breathing, feelings, eating and more through a "mindfulness" program offered by Guidance Counselor Diane Langworthy.

S
P
L
E
N
D
O
R
F
A
L
L

Our middle school cross country girls team finished second in a recent invitational meet at Pingry while the boys team won first place. Way to go, runners and coaches!

Sports

Trips

Nice day for a Sunday walking tour of Princeton, offered to interested 7th and 8th graders and organized by E2 instructor Dr. Susan Cooper.

A great season for our Middle School Soccer Teams!

Central's Laura Lamson and Lauren Nelson complete annual training for the Citizen Emergency Response Team (C.E.R.T.), including a search and rescue drill and setting up a mock point of distribution to handle emergency situations involving hundreds of people.

Central's Hildy Jackson and Laura Lamson run the "Insane Inflatable 5K" to support a former colleague battling cancer. "We were soaked to the bone but we had a blast." says Jackson.

Giving Back

This ALT 5th grader recruited a team of teachers and family to participate in the 1st Annual Walk for Dyslexia. Joining him are (L-R) teachers Amanda Gordon, Cathy Murphy, Cristina Trump and Kathy Boraski.

Hats off to....

All those who contributed to the success of our Opening Days and October inservice, especially our curriculum department, workshop presenters, the wizards in our IT department, our custodial staff and many more.

Scott Cook and Max Achtau who, along with seasoned mentors, support our newest staff through the yearlong New Teacher Induction Program. (NIP).

Middle school social worker Carol Brown, whose grant-writing skills netted $1760 in funding for key after-school clubs.

Congratulations to our September "Students of the Month"

Dean of Students Max Achtau enjoys the fall weather with some of our 8th graders.

Dr. Mingle meets with students across the district, asking what they like about their schools and what they might do if they were Principal.

Virtual Reality at Middle School!

S
U
P
E
R
V
I
S
O
R

For a second consecutive year, Principals Robert Comba (Middle) and Scott Cook (Mt. Horeb) presented at the national conference of the Association for Middle Level Education, this time in Austin, Texas. The two shared the district's journey to achieve a 1:1 learning environment. "By being accepted to present at this conference, Warren Township Schools was one of 300 school districts from across the nation that was able to showcase best practices," say Comba and Cook.

For Hispanic Heritage Month, Central 4th graders in Senora Hildy Jackson's classes create a baseball card with information about a favorite Hispanic player.

Listen to what students said about their first week of school...

SNAPSHOTS

Keeping our staff healthy at our annual Flu Clinic.

First Day of School

Licuados in Senora Slack's class... a yummy way to learn Spanish.

The district receives a $4000 award from the School Alliance Insurance Fund (SAIF) for compliance with safety protocols. The award money will be applied to district insurance premiums.

Week of Respect

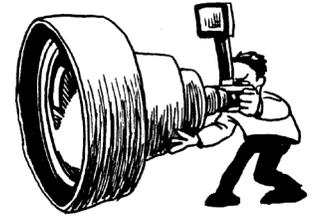

Tim O'Henev's 6th grade social studies classes participate in a mock presidential debate.

A 21st century art lesson for Woodland 5th graders under the direction of art teacher Jennifer Ronkiewicz.

More SNAPSHOTS

Independent reading in Christine Cirrotti's 8th grade language arts classes.

Fire Safety Week

In the News... a sampling of recent press coverage

Warren's Central School Celebrates Good Health, Sunshine on Field Day (Echoes-Sentinel, Oct. 17, 2016)

Social Studies Journey Takes Warren 5th Graders on a Journey (Star-Ledger, October 10, 2016)

Warren Township Schools Receive Safety Grant from NJSIG (Tap into Warren, Sept. 21, 2016)

Warren Township Teachers Ready for School (Courier News, Sept. 2, 2016)

Even More SNAPSHOTS

Field Day at Central

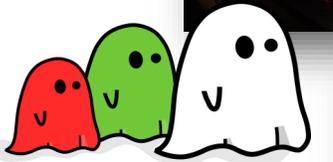

A spooky lesson on polymers, sublimation and other scientific fun, as the 8th grade science team (Kelly Brown, Michele Kramnitz, Christina Lee and Carolyn McCloskey) puts on a Halloween science show for students.

Meet our Supervisor of Special Education.

8th grade peer leaders visit kindergartners at Woodland and ALT to share Halloween fun and safety tips.

Happy Halloween

