

Help Stop Bullying!

Bully Awareness, Prevention, Intervention & Anti-Bullying Training are vital to creating safe environments conducive to learning

Schools ● Parents ● Students

6th Grade MS Parents – 10/16

7-8:30pm @ Warren Middle

Awareness – Raise awareness & knowledge on bully behavior; cyberbullying, and social media.

Strategies – Recognize various forms of bullying; learn critical strategies & how to support as a parent.

K-5th Grade Parents – 10/17

7-8:30pm @ Warren Middle

Informational – Awareness training, bully identification strategies, role-modeling behavior.

Understanding – Recognizing forms of bully behavior, & how to support as a parent.

6th Grade Students

The Ripple Effect – Power of PRIDE

10/16 at Warren Middle – Students learn the power of words, how to use PRIDE, address cyber bullying and how to stand up for others.

4th & 5th Grade Students

Bully in Me

10/17 at Central – Students learn Bully Circle, Common Language, and Identify key factors and strategies to become an Upstander.

Coach Randy is the President/CEO of Project NextGen. He is a national keynote speaker, workshop trainer, and anti-bullying expert. He is trained in the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program and offers trainings and programs for schools, students, parents, camps and coaches. Some of his most popular programs/trainings are: The Bully in Me (K-5), The Ripple Effect (6-12), Operation PRIDE (6-8), The LEAP Challenge (9-12), and Bullying in Sports: Keeping Athletes Safe. Coach Randy also works directly with students and their families who have been bullied helping them develop skills and strategies to engage this unwanted behavior. Contact CoachRandy@ProjectNextGen.com.

