Congratulations to 8th grader Constantin Bellmann for taking home top honors in the New Jersey Speech and Debate League's Online Festival. Constantin wrote an original speech from a prompt by Pakistani education activist, Malala Yousafzai Celebrating Human Rights Day. The prompt was, "Let us remember: One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world." Congratulations to 6th grader Cassie Bellmann for creating and delivering an original poem celebrating Human Rights Day. Cassie's speech received honorable mention in the same online speech and debate festival.

Way to go, Constantin and Cassie!

Random Acts of Kindness

The following Wolverines were caught performing random acts of kindness.

Kieran Robertson - Dr. Cooper - Nurse Lontai - Mrs. Shimko

*Our 2024 year is coming to an end
But we'll be back with more kindness
On this you can depend*

*The world can be quite scary
And sometimes we don't know where to turn
But we know that within the walls of WMS
There is so much we can all learn*

*Not just from books and technology
But from the people we see each day
And no matter what we all celebrate
It's these people that show us the way*

*To remember we're all here for a reason
And we all have so much to offer
Whether we're the same or ever so different
Together we will always be stronger
Have a happy, healthy break!*
