Girls Basketball

The girls basketball team had a phenomenal game against Montgomery. Marley Edwards had 24 points and Hailey Seubert had 13 points. The entire team had countless rebounds, steals and assists that helped them to win the game 49-30! All team members had great defense and made a big contribution to this win. Great job girls!

Boys Basketball

The boys basketball team fought hard in a challenging matchup against Montgomery, ultimately falling 35-51. The standout performance came from the Marvelous Michael Dibella, who played an exceptional defensive game with numerous steals. He also contributed 4 points; one three-pointer, one free throw, and multiple assists. Nikhil "the scoring machine" Raju was the team's top scorer with an impressive 14 points, including 4 2-pointers and 6 free throws. James Esposito also played a key role, adding 2 two-pointers, a three-pointer, and a free throw to the scoreboard.
