Boys Basketball

Warren Middle School put up an incredible performance against Branchburg in the first round of playoffs. James Esposito dropped 38 points, his career high! Nikhil was on fire from beyond the arc, and Aaron Kamath and Spencer each made solid contributions with 7 points and 12 points. Alfuquan was a force to be reckoned with in the paint. Michael Dibella and Bai Yang also chipped in, helping the team with points, assists, and rebounds. Warren ended up crushing Branchburg 85-57. Their next opponent in the playoffs is Bridgewater. Good luck, boys!

Spring Sports

Spring sports sign ups are now open in genesis. Please sign up and make sure all paperwork is up to date before February 28th at 3pm.
