Baseball

The boys baseball team played an amazing game against a talented Montgomery team. Warren came away with the win 6-5 and is their first win of the season. Michael DiBella started on the mound for the wolverines. He went four innings and only let up two runs with four strikeouts. Gabe Riberio, Dominic Cocuzza, and Harrison Noh both picked up RBI doubles in the game. Dante Glynos, Bobby Shlanker and Owen Dealamen, and Nick "Nicky G" Guerra picked up hits in the win. There were spectacular plays by Nick Clar, Roman Ricci and the birthday boy Owen Zambell. Dylan Ditta came in the last two innings and with the game on the line struck a kid out and won the game for the wolverines.

Softball

The WMS Softball team started off the season on a great note winning 19-3 over Montgomery. The wolverines had a whopping 12 hits in the game and were led at the plate by Hailey Seubert and Mackenzie Linton who both had 3 hits. As well as Emily Slepokura who drove in 4 runs along with a home run, and Alexa Law who also had 4 RBIs. Laura Bubnowski, Sophia Barnas and Emily Slepokura all pitched well to lead the team to a big win.

Track

Attention Track team: for those students who are participating in the Pingry meet today, please pick up your jersey before the end of the day. BOYS see Mr. Fabiano in the gym for a jersey and GIRLS see Mrs. Boni in room 41 for a jersey (preferably during your WIN).

History Club

The History Club is meeting today after school. Please come today to get ready for the 4th grade field trip!
