Boys Soccer

The boys soccer team defeated Readington 5-1 at home in a dominating performance with Kieran Melia, Isiah Mohallim, Shane Stoddard and Daniel Arpino all scoring beautiful goals. Brandon May, Daniel Manata, Ari Kirchheimer, Samvit Raina, Josh Menendez ran tirelessly and helped to wear down the opposition.

The boys look to add to their perfect start today away vs. Branchburg.

Girls Soccer

The WMS Girls Soccer team improved to 2-0 on Friday with a dominating win over Readington 9-2. Captain Ava Patel anchored the midfield and controlled the game allowing a flurry of goals to be contributed by 6 different players. Leading the way was 7th grader Hannah Richmond with a hat trick, followed by 8th grader Ashi Arora with 2 goals. Mia Prisco also contributed a goal as well as pulling the strings in the midfield adding 2 beautiful assists. 8th grader Bella Sicignano added a goal of her own as well as goals by 6th grade duo Capri Curtis and Aubrey Liao.

The girls take on Branchburg at home today.

Come cheer on the girls as they work to improve to 3-0.
