Girls Basketball

The girls basketball team dominated JP Case in the first round of the playoffs yesterday, beating JP Case 45-17. The girls started off on fire, leading 25 to 1 at the end of the first half, with a combination of suffocating defense and clinical work on the offensive end. The scoring was led by Ela Patwa, hitting a wide range of shots and ending with 16 points. Jane Lariviere added 8 points and MacKenzie Linton tacked on 6 of her own. The scoring was spread out across 10 different players, a testament to phenomenal team basketball. WMS takes on Branchburg away today in the quarter finals.

Connection Magazine

Congratulations to Isabella Santos and Sonia Prabhakar in getting their writing published in The Connection Magazine this month! Their new column, "Shelf Awareness" features recommendations for books teens might like. Before you head to the library or your favorite books store, be sure to check out their reviews of best books in romance, fantasy, mystery and easy reads. Keep up the good writing, girls!
