WMS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

March 6th
B Day

National Oreo Cookie Day

A reminder to all students that all cell phones are to be turned off before entering the building. All electronic devices (including watches and airpods) should be off and stored in your locker for the entire day.

Please pay close attention to this important reminder about Chromebook expectations:Chromebooks are to be used for academic purposes only.
They are learning tools provided to support your classroom work, research, assignments, and instructional activities.Chromebooks are not permitted to be used outside of the classroom unless a teacher has given you specific permission. This means they should not be open or in use in the hallways or during homeroom.When you are transitioning between classes or attending homeroom, your Chromebook should be closed and stored safely. As always no student is permitted to take a photograph and or a video of any other student unless under the direct supervision of a teacher.

It's Friday Kind-Day!!!!
Shout out to the following Wolverines who are crushing the WMS kindness challenge!
Please report to the counseling office during your WIN period to complete your link in the chain!!

History Club
The History Club is proud to announce the winners of this week's trivia. Congratulations to Harper Granholm and Marco Gramaglia, who correctly knew it was only ONE day that separated the beginning and end of World War Two. The war began on September 1st, 1939, and ended on September 2nd, 1945, a difference of only ONE day! See Mr. Arnold in room 51 for your prize.
