Baseball

In Warren baseball news, Warren lost 7-5 to Branchburg in a tough, back-and-forth contest. Warren took an early lead in the first inning when Ben Bodajlo led off with a single, stole second and then scored on a single from Dylan Walters to right field. Rehan Patel pitched a great in the game, helped by strong defensive plays from the team. Warren added another run in the second inning after Lorenzo Gramaglia drew a walk, and Gavin Gartner drove him in with a single. In the next inning, Roman Ricci added a monster bomb to left field, driving in two runs with two outs. Warren extended the lead to 5-0. Branchburg responded with a four-run inning to close the gap, and later added more runs. Lucas Araujo pitched amazingly in relief, and Aarav Desai came in to finish the game, but in the end, the Wolverines ran out of time. Come and see the baseball team play Bridgewater after school this Monday!
