Week of Respect

Monday starts the Week of Respect in New Jersey, our spirit day is "Being Kind Is No Sweat!" Show your kindness and school spirit by wearing your favorite sweatshirt, sweatpants, or matching set. Let's start the week by spreading kindness and respect throughout our school!

Tuesday Homework Club

Mrs. Scott's Tuesday Homework Club will NOT meet Tuesday October 6th.
Our first meeting will be Tuesday October 13th.

Girls Soccer

The girls soccer team stayed perfect on the season yesterday versus Hillsborough with an impressive and tenacious 3 to 0 win. Hailey Jurist kept another clean sheet with a steel curtain of defense led by Grace Lukacs and Teegan Byrne, backed up by Taylor Berens, Riley Burke and Anna Gemignani. It was a very physical clash from start to finish with Ava Patel setting the tone early on with aggressive duel wins. Hannah Richmond opened up the scoring after a beauty of a pass from Aubrey Liao setting her up 1 on 1 with the keeper. Ava Patel assisted Noa Zissu after a very heads up quick restart. Noa beat the last defender and finished with ease. Capri Curtis hammered the nail home with pure speed beating her defender down the right and setting up Savannah Maurer for the third and final goal. Keep up the great work!

Boys Soccer

The Warren Boy's soccer team went to Hillsborough and dominated all phases of the game to win 5-1. Daniel Manata did his best Messi impression as he was too much for the defense on his way to 3 goals. Isiah Mohallim ran Hillsborough ragged on his way to his second goal in two games while Gavin Castagna played great all game and added in our final goal. Shane Stoddard's footwork was unstoppable as he frustrated Hillsborough and added an assist. Riyaan parti played a great Box to Box game in midfield helping to control the middle and adding in an assist as well. Roman Manosane ran for about 10 miles all over the field, while Luciano Firenzouli, Jayden Chen, Ben Rosen, Samvit Raina and Ari Kircheimer locked down the opposition. Ben Rodrigues and Zeke Feliz once again were unbeatable in goal from the field of play. Joey Penaloza put in a great physical performance as the team played amazing football and really dominated in every phase of the game. Also, a shout out to Abdul Darby, our official team manager who may just be our good luck charm this season! Warren is 4-0 going into a big game against rivals Bridgewater at home on Monday! Come out and support the boys as we look to stay undefeated!
