A Message from Mr. Villar

We have had recent incidents of “pantsing” between students. This practice is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Even if you think you’re “just joking,” the other person may feel embarrassed, uncomfortable, or unsafe. It is NOT a joke, it is not funny and it is a serious invasion of personal space and privacy. We expect you to keep your hands to yourselves and respect everyone’s personal space. Anyone engaging in pantsing will be subject to escalated disciplinary consequences.

Week of Respect

Today everyone is wearing bright and neon colors to let their kindness shine and show respect for others, our school, our community, and ourselves. One way to show respect is to ask yourself, “Would I feel proud if my parents saw this?” before posting something on social media. If the answer is “no”, don’t post!

Girls Soccer

The girls soccer team suffered their first defeat yesterday against the defending champions Bridgewater-Raritan Middle School. Hannah Richmond got on the score sheet with an incredible long range strike on a pass delivered by Ava Patel. The team played tough for 60 minutes but a few bad bounces ended in a 3-1 defeat. The girls have two more big games this week against JP Case and Ridge, both games being played away.

Homework Club

Mrs. Scott’s Tuesday Homework Club will NOT meet Tuesday October 6th, our first meeting will be Tuesday October 13th.

Jazz Cub

All students interested in Jazz Band will need to audition next Tuesday, October 13. See Mr. Van Tine’s website for more information and audition music.
