Week of Respect

Today everyone is wearing tie-dye and 1970's attire to "Give Peace a Chance" and show we are accepting of other's differences. We challenge you to embrace what makes you – and your peers – unique! Find someone new to talk with on the bus, play with during gym, or sit with during lunch. We are all much more alike than we are different, and the differences keep things interesting!

On Thursday, we will "Put Bullying to Bed" by wearing your favorite school appropriate pajamas.

Cross Country

The Cross Country team dominated yesterday at its first home meet against Greenbrook.

The girls had 8 of the top 10 finishers and the boys had 5 of the top 10 finishers.

Mila Czarnecki finished first for the girls, Abby Fattell came in second, Lily Rodak came in fourth, Alex Glynos came in sixth, Ana Dzeletovic came in seventh, Eva Dzeletovic came in eighth, Aahana Verma came in ninth and Chelsea Sun came in tenth. For the boys, Matthew Holliss came in first, Julian Cardenas came in second. Lucas Amador came in fourth, Andrew Yenish in 7th and Patrick Rosinski came in tenth.. Great job team! We will have practice today after school until late buses at 3:50. Tomorrow (Thursday) is an away meet for the Travel team.
