History Club

History Club Update: Classified sources confirm that today's meeting is officially canceled. Mr. Arnold has been compromised by a stealthy virus and is temporarily out of commission. He sends his deepest apologies for the sudden pause in our weekly meetings! He is fully planning to regroup, reload, and meet again next week. Stay curious! He looks forward to seeing you next week!

Week of Respect

Today everyone is wearing pajamas to show that we have put bullying to bed at WMS. Bullying is unacceptable, and will not be tolerated in our community. If you see someone being bullied, be an upstander. You can tell the bullies to stop, help the victim walk away, be a friend to the victim, and tell a trusted adult.

Tomorrow is the last day of the Week of Respect. We will show we are a united school community by wearing Warren Middle School spirit wear or our school colors Blue and White.

Girls Soccer

The girls soccer team had a hard fought battle against JP Case ending in a 1-1 draw.

The team played aggressive and created many opportunities but the JP Case goalkeeper was able to stop the attempts on goal. Early in the second half, down 1-0, Ava Patel found Virginia Cowell on the left flank where she flew past the defense and equalized with a clutch finish to tally her first goal in her WMS career. A late game winning goal by Savannah Mauer was called offside by a very close margin. The girls have a tough game to finish out the week away at Ridge. Come support the team!

Boys Soccer

The Warren Boys Soccer Team, knocked off top dog JP Case yesterday in an intense battle with Warren holding onto the win 2-1. The team started off 2-0 with goals from Daniel Manata who was unstoppable. With several athletes unable to play, our team stuck together, gave it our all and got the win, which came down to the very last second of the game. A big shout out to the whole boys soccer team who deserve a round of applause for fighting for 60 minutes and digging out a huge win against a very good JP Case team. Way to go boys! Warren is now 5-1 on the season and looks to go 6-1 against Ridge on Friday at home!
