Boys Soccer

The Warren Boys Soccer Team dominated Franklin 6-2 and have clinched a bye in the first round of the playoffs and a home semifinal game. Isiah M scored a stunner of a free kick into the upper corner to start the scoring. Daniel Manata added another goal with a beauty after dribbling through the defense. Shane Stoddard fooled the goalie and scored with a chip from the top of the box. Warren then made two mistakes which led to quick Franklin goals to bring the score to 3-2. Luciano F. scored an incredible header backpedaling and placing the ball over the arms of the keeper to make the score 4-2. Riyaan Parti scored two goals to finish the game, the second being a long range shot that beat the keeper over his head to finish off Franklin 6-2 for the day.

Peer Mediation

Attention all 7th and 8th graders! Are you interested in becoming a Peer Mediator? Now's your chance! If you'd like to be trained to help fellow students work through conflicts and build stronger friendships, complete the student application in the Peer Mediation Google Classroom by October 19th! If you have any questions, stop by the counseling office and speak with Ms. Cohen or Ms. Rotella.
