Rocket League

Big news from the esports arena! Yesterday, our Rocket League squad secured another flawless sweep against Markham Place Middle School, bringing their incredible record to 5-1. Huge shoutout to Kieran Robertson, Ayush Patel, and Marvin Infante for combining master-level teamwork and skill to win the day. The team is now ranked 4th in New Jersey, and a win next week could bump them up to 3rd just in time for the state tournament!

Good luck next week!

Boys Soccer

The Warren Boys Soccer Team closed out their season with an 11-2 victory over Clinton. Warren finished the season 8-1, finishing top in the league and scoring a total of 57 goals, a possible school record. Please congratulate the team as they automatically move onto the semifinals next Tuesday and have attained homefield advantage for the playoffs. We look to close out this season as we started, so come out and support the team as we look to go for the title at home!

Spring Musical
