A Community Conversation on the Whole Child

Wednesday, March 8, 2017

Please join us as Sean Slade, Director of Global Outreach at the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD) leads a community conversation about the Whole Child approach to education — that each child, in each school, in each of our communities, deserves to be healthy, safe, engaged, supported, and challenged.

Top 3 Reasons to Attend

1. To learn about the Whole Child approach to education.
2. To provide valuable feedback to questions posed in three breakout sessions.
3. To celebrate student achievement with music and art exhibitions.
