

Central's Poetry Café

Fourth graders share original works of haiku, limericks, acrostic and other forms of poetry on such topics as soccer, giraffes, pancakes and Harry Potter. "The limerick was the hardest to write," says Library Media Specialist Lindsay Chell, who organized the event. "But the students really liked the limericks because they were so funny."

Welcome to Christine Smith, who succeeds Kathy Bond as ALT's new principal on July 1. All the best to both!

Under the direction of Mt. Horeb art teacher Susan Sage, third graders draw dogwood flowers with attention to detail, as part of a lesson on artists who work "en plein air" (in the open air).

Inspired by former Woodland student Peyton Walton, a video production crew shadows Woodland 5th graders and their teacher Colleen Krumm for two days as part of a project to highlight how adaptive technology can be used to connect a homebound student to his/her class (and a class to the world).

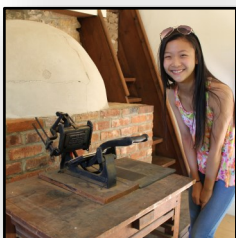

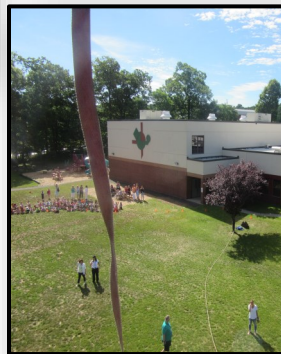

ALT's principal Kathy Bond is feted by students, staff and board members, as she prepares to retire at the end of the month. Ms. Bond has been with the district for 18 years... 11 at the helm at ALT and 7 as dean of students at Warren Middle School.

At this PTO-sponsored event, Woodland students watch as a colorful hot air balloon is inflated and tethered with several teachers aboard. A 40-minute assembly followed with a hot air balloon pilot who talked about the science behind the enormous flying machine.

Mt. Horeb unveils its new garden with song and celebration. The 50th anniversary time capsule stands ready to preserve special items. Special thanks to Don Strickland, Mike Gonnella, Principal Cook, Kara Miletic, Kate Kogler, the Grade 5 design team, the PTO and all who made this special place a reality.

Eighth graders enjoy a tour of local historical sites including the Kirsch-Ford House, the Coddington House, the Hofheimer Grotto and Washington Rock. Did you know that certain historians believe that the Continental Army under General George Washington's command set up camp on the present day site of ALT?

Students of the Month—April 2016

Back Row (L-R): Anthony Lee, John Bechtle, Apostoli Malouhos, Lea Daunno

Front Row (L-R): Faith Carlson, Maya Aerts, James Hughes, Sarah Marreiros

Students of the Month—May 2016

Back Row (L-R): Deepa Irakam, Chad Martini, Nicholas Glynos, Julian Brandofino, Kathryn Larsen

Front Row (L-R): Marilyn Du, Tyler Hoke, Rebecca Schell

Students of the Month—June 2016

Back Row (L-R): Kaitlin Zhu, Owen Furlong, Portia Rowley, Michael Butrico, Anna Schafhauser

Front Row (L-R): Ajay Patel, Isabella Mannino, Jake Hoke

The Dancing Scientist visits
Mt. Horeb.

From colonial games to quill pens to one room schoolhouses, Central students learn the history of the Garden State on NJ History Day, organized by library media specialist Lindsay Chell and the PTO.

Music rings out across the district at end of the year band and choral performances, the culmination of a year of hard work and talent by Grades 4-8 students and their instructors Bruce Gant, Amy Jensen, Diane McCloskey, William Mellott, John Seremula, and Joel VanTine.

Outstanding 8th Grade
Music Students

Check out "The Tank" at Warren Middle School!

ALT
Wax
Museum

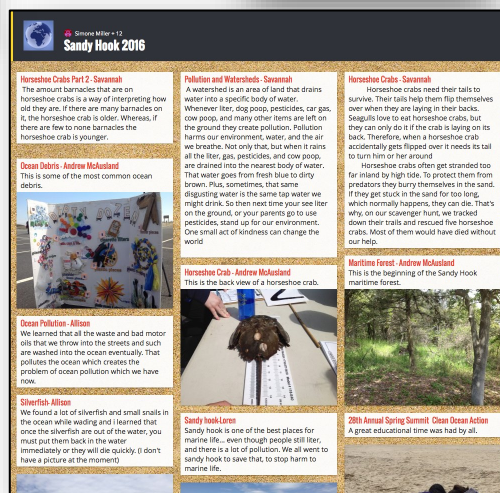

The district's communications coordinator gets a lift from a Warren Township fire truck for a bird's eye view of Mt. Horeb staff and students.

Woodland
Wax
Museum

18 sixth graders took part in the Clean Ocean Action Summit at Sandy Hook, sharing what they learned about dunes, birding, fishing, litter clean-up and more via the collaborative website Padlet.com. "They seemed to like the animals best—the horseshoe crabs, terrapins and sand crabs," says science teacher Simone Miller.

Remember to like us on Facebook (Warren Township Board of Education) and follow us on Twitter (Warren Twp Schools@warrenschoolsnj).

Hats off to...

- ⇒ Each and every one of our terrific staff for another successful year.
- ⇒ This year's recipients of the Excellence in Education Award: Catherine Maguire, Catherine Murphy, Vivien Plesmid, Jennifer SanAntonio, and Adam Yenish.
- ⇒ The Warren Middle School students recognized by the Board of Education at its June 6 meeting for outstanding achievement in writing, math, foreign language, music and other educational areas.
- ⇒ Our eighth grade recipients of Unified Arts special awards, including music, art, physical education, computer and more.
- ⇒ Central 4th grader Neelesh Thanasegaran, chosen by the Somerset Patriots on May 13 as the team's 2016 Kid CEO.
- ⇒ 7th grader Aneesh Karuppur who made it to the Quarter Finals of the National History Bee in Chicago.

Snapshots...

Mt. Horeb's brick patio in the new garden.

"White Out Against Bullying" Day at Warren Middle School.

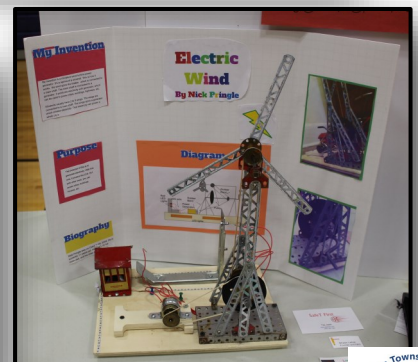

Cinco de Mayo in Angela DellaVentura's classroom.

The Grade 5 Invention Convention at Woodland

Central School's Grade 5 Invention Convention

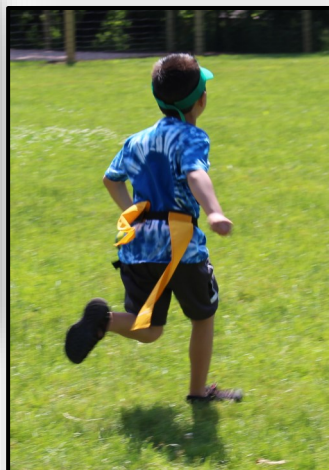

ALT
Field
Day

Mt. Horeb Field Day

More Snapshots...

Woodland
Field Day

Central's Grade
5 Talent Show

Mt. Horeb students enjoy jacks, hula hoops, Twister and other vintage games as part of the school's Golden Anniversary celebration.

In the News... a sampling of recently published articles.

A Solar Powered Win for Warren Students — Star-Ledger, 6/5/16

Christine Smith Named New Warren Principal — Echoes-Sentinel, 6/13/16

A White Out at Warren Middle School — Star-Ledger, 5/31/16

Warren Teachers Honored for Educational Efforts - Courier News, 5/28/16

Rhyming Warren Students Celebrate Power of Words — Courier News, 5/12/16

Warren Township Students and Staff Give Back — Tap into Warren, 5/18/16

Imaginations at Work in Warren Township Schools — Tap into Warren, 5/16/16

Warren Township's Mayor and Deputy Mayor Visit ALT's Young Authors — Warren Patch, 5/2/16