

Evidence-Based Strategies to Promote Healthy Lifestyles and Inclusion Opportunities for Adolescents and Adults with ASD

Presented by

Linda Meyer, Ed.D., BCBA-D, LBA and Barbara Wells, DTR, SNS

Thursday, November 16th, 6:00pm-8:30pm

Beck rooms in the Walsh Library

Light refreshments provided

$40 for Professionals

Free for Seton Hall University students

$20 for SHU alumni, non-SHU students and parents/guardians of someone with ASD

Two BACB Type 2 CE credits provided for BCBAs and BCaBAs

Register online using this link

www.shu.edu/ABASpeakerSeries

Contact Dr. Frank Cicero Frank.Cicero@shu.edu with any questions

Hosted by the Department of Applied Behavior Analysis

